Dear Hal,

Reference is made to your letter dated January 9, 1959 regarding telephone and TWX services claimed on invoices numbered 10-16 and 10-21.

We are sorry that the contract approvals regarding review by individuals at Edwards Airforce Base were written in such a manner as to result in different interpretations.

If you will return invoices numbered 10-16 and 10-21 we will process them for payment expeditiously using your letter as evidence that the amounts claimed by the telephone company were approved by [redacted] prior to payment.

Our Contracting Officer has requested that on all future price exhibits you add the following statement:

"The telephone and TWX charges were approved by [redacted] prior to payment thereof by this company. The amount stipulated exclusive of profit was the amount approved for payment."

Yours very truly,

E/
Doug
